GASSED JULY 15, JUST REPORTED

War Department Is Slow In Giving Names of Men Injured In France.

Either Sergt. Alexander Norte, battery B, 14th field artillery, has been wounded twice or the government has been very slow in giving out his name in the casualty list.

His name appeared in The Herald's list on Monday as "wounded, degree undetermined." More than two months ago his wife received notice from the war department that he had been gassed on July 15. Since that time, she has received letters from him, one of them telling her that he was well and had returned to duty.

She has received a second notice of his being wounded a second time in the list but once, she says, so it is possible that the "wound" now being reported is the gassing he received in July. It is either that, or the wife has not been notified the second time.

Col. Boleau is a native of Washington, D. C., and entered the military service during the Spanish-American war when he was a first lieutenant of the first infantry. Afterward he was mustered out at the end of the war and appointed first lieutenant in the artillery corps. He is a graduate of the artillery school, 1904, a distinguished graduate of the army school of the line, 1910, and a graduate of the staff college, 1911, and of the law department of George Washington University.

As Spanish influenza is an exaggerated form of Grip, GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC should be taken in larger doses than if prescribed for ordinary Grip. A good plan is to wait until you are sick, but PREVENT IT by taking GROVE'S TASTELESS CHILL TONIC in time—ADV.

Motor Repair Unit Recruit Work Goes On

Phoenix Office Closed; El Paso To Remain Open Until Nov. 14.

Phoenix, Ariz., having "gone over the top" in furnishing recruits for the motor repair units being trained at the First El Paso mechanical shop, the branch recruiting office there, in charge of R. A. Kirk, of the Phoenix chamber of commerce, was closed Monday evening. The main recruiting office, at El Paso in the Sheldon hotel, will remain open until Nov. 14, according to announcement of Sergt. P. H. Walter, assisting the recruiting officers, W. G. Rose, president of the El Paso Automobile club, and Lieut. J. Y. Headley.

"I am not at liberty to say how many men Phoenix furnished, but it was more than was expected," said Sergt. Walter. "Recruiting continues briskly at El Paso also. Prospects of peace should not keep men from joining the motor repair units, because men in this branch will be used probably a year and a half after the war ends."

LIEUT. CRANE NOW IN CHARGE OF ARMY POLICE
Capt. W. H. Manning, who has been provost marshal here for some time, has been ordered to duty at Fort Bliss. Lieut. Charles E. Crane is now in charge of the military police at the city station, with Lieut. Allan C. Eskine as assistant.

Mal Thomas R. Barnett is in command of the military police both in the city and at Fort Bliss, dividing his time between the two places. Lieut. John M. Salles, who has been away for several days, is expected to return to his duty at the provost station in the city Wednesday.
